THE AMERICAN INDIAN VETERANS MEMORIAL RIVERSIDE NATIONAL CEMETERY, CALIFORNIA

◀▶ URGENT UPDATE ▶◀

Join us in being part of history to recognize the tremendous sacrifices and great works of American Indian Veterans who bravely served our country in wartime and peacetime. What was a vision to recognize the long history of military service by American Indian Veterans in 2005 is now at a critical junction and is in dire need of funding. Without additional funding now, the installation of the A. Thomas Schomberg sculpted centerpiece monument designed to recognize and honor so many Veterans is in jeopardy.

The Riverside National Cemetery Support Committee, partnering with the American Indian Alaska Native Veterans Memorial Committee, needs your help to make this vision a reality. With rising costs and continued supply chain issues, plus delays during the Covid 19 pandemic years, it has been impossible for fundraising to keep up with inflation. As a result, we are seeking financial assistance to start construction in late 2022 with a target installation of the monument by March 2023.

To bring this inspiring monument to its rightful place next to all of the courageous Veterans laid to rest at the cemetery, the committees must raise an estimated $750,000 over the next three months.

Two life-sized TRIBUTE EAGLES, one on either side of the walkway entrance, will mark the entry to the American Indian Veterans Memorial. Sculpted by Mike Curtis.

THE GIFT is cloaked in the U.S.A.'s first flag, the Continental flag. It is intended to represent the over 250 years of American Indian patriots who have served to protect our country's freedoms.
